

UQBS RHD Funding Scheme

- Purpose: To assist with research related expenses.
- Eligibility: Confirmed candidates. Provisional candidates are not eligible for funding.
- Value: Up to $15,000 over candidature
- Basis of Award: Merit based
- Duration of funding: Candidates will re-apply in the following year. Funds not spent from the current allocation will not be carried over to the next year.
- Application process: The Research Director will email all RHD candidates in early February advising that the annual round of funding will commence. RHD students are asked to prepare a submission for funding needs for the coming 12 months on the appropriate form and submit these to the Research Director by the specified deadline (approximately mid March)
- Outcome: The Research Director will convene a committee to consider the applications. The outcome will be approved by the Head of School. The Research Director will advise successful applicants of the outcome.
- Considerations:
1. Progress in RHD program
 2. Annual attendance at the UQBS Research Colloquium
 3. Conference attendance will only be considered after an RHD student has been confirmed, and on the condition that they have a paper accepted.
 4. All air travel and accommodation is to be booked by contacting the Business School's Resource Team staff who will book and arrange payment through the UQ preferred travel agent, Campus Travel.
 5. All other approved travel expenses will be reimbursed upon presentation of receipts.
 6. The maximum that will be considered to cover the cost of incentives to increase response rate to surveys, will be up to $2,000 (e.g. movie tickets or through the School of Psychology)
 7. 50% of the cost of ACSPRI course fees
